

THE GREENBRIER ART LEAGUE

The Greenbrier Art League is a non-profit organization dedicated to further the study and development of visual arts, and to promote interest in art in the community. The Greenbrier Art League invites members, old and new, students and appreciators of art to join.

On Tuesday, April 3, 2012, the art league will return to the Cassidy Theatre. We are very excited about coming home! The art league was started over 40 years ago as the Cultural Center was being built. We moved to Parmatown in 2009 due to the city's need of our space.

The Greenbrier Gallery is located at the Parma Heights Senior Center at the Educator Apartments. You can see over 100 paintings created by our membership, they are for sale at very reasonable prices. The gallery is open during the week from 9 AM-3 PM.

One artist is selected to be artist of the month at the Chamber of Commerce at Parmatown.

In conjunction with the Cassidy Theatre productions, artwork is displayed in the lobby.

As we move back to the Cassidy Theatre we are changing our format. We will meet every Tuesday for an open painting session from 10 AM-2 PM., the second Tuesday of the month we will hold our meeting. This is terrific to think about painting in any medium of your choice; there is no charge. We will all help each other to enjoy what we love doing.

Please bring your own materials, lunch and a beverage and your enthusiasm.

Any questions, please call Susan Kiedio at 44.845.5373