FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

DATE ANNOUNCED FOR PARMA HEIGHTS HOUSEHOLD HAZARDOUS WASTE ROUND-UP

Parma Heights – Saturday, October 13, 2012, from 9:00 a.m. through 12:00 p.m. has been chosen for the city's next Household Hazardous Waste Round-Up event. According to Michelle Teresi, Building, Housing & Recycling Coordinator, the event will be held at the Parma Heights Service Garage located at 6184 Pearl Road in the Greenbrier Commons. Proof of residency is required.

Residents may drop off their unwanted household oil-based paints and products, pesticides, fertilizers, and chemicals. "Please note that latex paint is not accepted at this event as it is a biodegradable product," Teresi emphasized.

Residents with questions are encouraged to go to the Service Department page of the city's website at www.parmaheightsoh.gov for more detailed information on the Household Hazardous Waste Round-Up or they can contact the Service Department at 440 884-9607.
